CORNER TURNED IN HIGH PRICES

Food Administrator Hoover Predicts Price Reduction Soon

Retail Prices Have Not Yet Come Down to Conform to Wholesale Reductions — Foundations Laid for Regulation of Intermediate Trades.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Food administrator Hoover announced today that, subject to co-operation from the farmers and retailers, the corner has now been turned in high prices for food. He said retail prices had not come down to conform to wholesale reductions and that was a matter for public sentiment to correct.

The Administrator's Statement.

"The food administration considers that, subject to co-operation from the farmers and the retailers the corner has now been turned in high prices, and that most of the essential commodities should one after another continue to show reduction between now and the end of the year. The food administration has no control of either the grower or his organizations nor of the great majority of retailers.

"The foundations have been laid for regulation of the intermediate trades and where these regulations have come into force and the trades are co-operating finely, considerable results are evident in the wholesale prices.

"The current prices at which flour is being sold at the mill in jute bags vary somewhat with the locality and freight charges on wheat, Toledo showing the lowest prices at $10 for first patent and $9.70 for second patent, the highest being Buffalo at $10.70 for first patent and $10.70 for second patent; Minneapolis being $10.60 for first patent and $10.46 for second patent. This shows a large reduction under the August prices.

"The regulations on the distribution of wheat and the manufacture of flour were put into force the middle of September.

"The average retail price on first patents in 796 cities on October 13 was $13.77 or from $1.50 to $2.00 per barrel higher than is warranted by the price being made by the millers. In other words the retail price has not wholly responded to the reductions made by the millers.

"The bean harvest this year is estimated by the department of agriculture at approximately 7,000,000 bushels in excess of last year or nearly double last year and promises an abundant supply. The growers associations in prominent bean producing states are holding beans for from 13 1-2 to 15 cents per pound as against an average price realized by the grower last year of 8 cents per pound. There has been 100 percent increase in the Manchurian bean crop and it is now estimated at 2,000,000 tons. Owing to shipping shortage, practically the only outlet is to the United States and these beans will flow into the American market from December on much below the prices now being demanded for American beans.

40 Per Cent Drop for Corn Meal.

"The corn harvest this year is 600,000,000 to 700,000,000 bushels over last year, and will be generally available about the end of November. The price of corn rose to $2.30 per bushel in July and now stands at $1.90 per bushel in Chicago. New corn is quoted in Chicago at $1.13 per bushel for December and indicates nearly a forty per cent drop in the price of corn meal when the new corn is generally available.

Promise Cheaper Stock Feed.

"The very large corn supplies from the new harvest, together with the larger supplies of barley, velvet beans, cottonseed, peanut and soy bean meal all promise much cheaper cattle, hog and poultry feed, and will enable the production of beef, pork, poultry and dairy products at much lower levels of cost to the farmer than today and his earnings can be maintained with lower prices of production. The packing, cold storage and other manufacturing and wholesale distributors in these trades are in course of regulation.

"Beef already shows some tendency toward reduction in wholesale prices, but these have not been so far reflected in the prices quoted by the retailer. The price of beef at the packers door is 14 1-2 cents per pound as compared with 16 cents in the month of July, while the average retail prices of round steak in 796 cities is 31 cents per pound as against 27 cents per pound in July, thus showing that retail prices have increased while wholesale prices have decreased.

Increased Potato Harvest.

"We have a potato harvest of 59 per cent in excess of the crop of last year. The price at the loading points varies from $1.50 to $2.80 per hundred pounds, depending on the section where grown and the cost of getting them to market. The price which is somewhat higher than at this period last year is due to a tendency on the part of the producer to hold the potatoes for higher prices than last year despite the greatly increased crop and to the temporary inability of railroads to furnish equipment sufficient to move from many sections the quantity available at this time. The average

REVEALS DETAILS OF INDIA CONSPIRACY

Arctic Explorer and Crew were Marked for Assassination

Hindu Priest Testifies in Judge Landis' Court At Trial of Four Chicagoans Charged with Conspiracy Against Government.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the arctic explorer and a crew of nineteen sailors were among those marked for assassination by the leaders directing the alleged plot to foment a revolution in India to embarass Great Britain during the war according to testimony given by Chatterji, a Hindu priest in Judge Landis' court at today's session of the trial of Gustav H. Jacobsen, wealthy Chicago real estate dealer and his three co-defendants charged with conspiracy.

Wholesale murder and the kidnaping of numerous persons was part of the program outlined by the alleged conspirators the witness testified.

This part of the plot Chatterji said was revealed to him for the first time in Manila by George Paul Boehm, one of the defendants.

"Boehm said that he had planned to kill Captain Cook and his crew who were to make an expedition in the vicinity of the Himalaya mountains," said the witness. "Boehm was to assume the name of Captain Cook and the other men in our party were to assume the names of the other sailors who were to be killed. I protested and the assassination did not take place. It was Boehm's plan to go thru India under the guise of an explorer and foment a revolt among the natives against Great Britain. The plan was to either kidnap or murder any British officials, detectives or spies who interfered with our plans."

The witness came to this country in 1912 to study journalism but later was induced to take part in the alleged plot by Gupta, one of the defendants. He told of meetings held in San Francisco in 1915 at which plans for the alleged plot were discussed and of going to Manila with alleged conspirators. The witness later was arrested with others and brought back to this country for trial.

Six Months in Solitary Confinement.

On cross-examination Chatterji admitted he had been imprisoned for six months in solitary confinement in India before he confessed and was brought back to this country.

Thomas J. Tunney of the neutrality bureau of investigation of the New York police department testified to an alleged confession made to him by Heramba Lal Gupta in New York March 10, 1917, and his testimony was corroborated by George C. Barnett a New York detective sergeant.

"He told me that Captain Van Papen, the military attache of the German embassy in the United States paid him between $15,000 and $16,000 in a suite of offices in lower Broadway," said Dr. Hunney. He said he received the money in six or seven payments and it was to be used in making a trip to the orient. He said later he went to China and Japan and purchased fire arms and ammunition for use in the revolution in India. Gupta told me that Von Papen said he would buy additional fire arms and ammunition in the United States and ship it to the orient by way of the South Sea. Gupta told me he returned to this country in June, 1916, after having been followed by detectives all over China and Japan. He said that while in Japan he was given protection in the home of a high public official.

"He told me the headquarters of the conspiracy was in Berlin."

Richard Herrmann a German reservist forty-two years old, who came to this country from Saxony, testified that Jacobsen endeavored to induce, in February, 1915, to "help the fatherland" by fomenting strikes in factories of the United States. The witness also said the defendant added he could "help the fatherland" by putting poison in food for horses and mules and otherwise working to cripple the United States as a means of preventing this country from going to war with Germany.

HORSE ESTABLISHES SLAIN MAN'S IDENTITY

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The identity of a mysteriously slain man found bound in rope and canvas in his wagon in an alley early today was established by the horse.

A policeman gave the horse free rein and the animal took a devious course and brought up at his barn in the rear of Abraham Glicken's home.

Glicken identified the dead man as Jacob Pill, a fruit peddler who was a limited partner of his for eight years. Receipt stubs showed that Pill had collected $100 during the day. As only $1 was found in his pockets the police assumed that robbery was the motive for the crime.

GERMAN SUBMARINE TO AID LOAN DRIVE

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A German submarine captured by the British will soon be on view in New York. It arrived in three sections in the hold of an English steamship yesterday and was unloaded today to be assembled in Central Park as an exhibit to aid the liberty loan drive.

GERMAN SAILORS' MUTINY REPORTED

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 18.—A mutiny among German sailors at the Belgian port of Ostend who refused to go on board submarines is reported by the Belgisch Bagblad. The newspaper says an officer was thrown into the sea and that thirty mutineers were removed in handcuffs to Bruges.

STRIKE MAY EXTEND TO OTHER FIELDS

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The serious situation existing in Illinois thru a strike of coal miners promised tonight to extend to other fields. Strikes in Indiana and Ohio, it was said, threatened to spread and to extend to the Pennsylvania field, and President John P. White of the United Mine Workers was hurrying to Indianapolis, headquarters of the miner's organization in an effort to induce the men out to return to work.

From the southwestern coal fields it was reported that a strike called for Friday morning in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas had been deferred pending negotiations.

RECOMMEND DEMAND FOR WAGE INCREASES

Representatives of Railroad Workers Reach Decision

Question Will be Submitted to Referendum of Members of Brotherhoods—Men Involved are Trainmen, Conductors, Brakemen and Yardmen.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—Representatives of 200,000 organized railroad workers in the northeastern part of the United States and eastern Canada decided here today to recommend to their unions that they demand from their employers wage increases of not less than 20 per cent. The workers involved are trainmen, conductors, baggagemen, brakemen and yardmen.

The vote in favor of the demand for increased pay was unanimous on the part of the 104 chairmen of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors who have been in session here for three days.

The uestion will be submitted to a referendum of the members of the brotherhoods and if their vote is affirmative negotiations with the railroad companies will begin. If the increases are granted they will mean the addition of millions of dollars to the annual payrolls of about fifty companies which are involved.

W. G. Lee, president of the trainmen's organization in announcing the decision of the convention said "in view of the bounding cost of living the men feel they are entitled to more money and they intend to press their demands for the 20 per cent increase."

TEN SOCIALISTS ARE ACQUITTED BY JURY

Germer and Others Not Guilty of Conspiracy Against Selective Draft

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 18.—Adolph Germer, of Chicago, executive secretary of the National Socialist party, and ten other persons, were acquitted by a jury in United States district court here this evening of charges of conspiracy against the selective draft.

All the defendants were tried together. With the exception of Germer, all were residents of this city. Nine of them were members of the Socialist party.

The charge against them was circulation of literature which the government held was intended to induce young men not to register. The jury in its verdict declared this was not the purpose of the literature and that there had been no conspiracy.

The Grand Rapids defendants in the case were Rev. Daniel Roy Freeman, pastor of a Unitarian church; Charles G. Taylor, former member of the board of education; Miss Viva Flaherty, Dr. Martin Elsinga, Glenn G. Flezer, Glenn H. Panghorn, Benjamin Blumenberg, Benjamin A. Faulkner, James W. Clements and Charles J. Callaghan.

Germer and his wife, who has been with him during the trial, left for Chicago tonight.

CHAMP CLARK SPEAKS FOR LIBERTY BONDS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 18. Speaker Champ Clark still weak from a severe cold contracted on his trip from St. Louis and which kept him confined in Oklahoma City for two days was the central figure in the big liberty bond celebration of Missouri and Kansas guardsmen at Fort Sill, Okla., today. Speaker Clark spoke briefly. He declared the nation is behind the soldiers to a man.

"God bless us, every one," he concluded after an appeal for the liberty loan and was cheered by the soldiers.

REGRETS ARREST OF MILK CONSPIRATORS

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—W. J. Kettle, secretary of the Milk Producers' association issued a statement tonight in which he expressed regret of the indictment of five members of the board charged with conspiracy and declared the action brought unnecessary humiliatio nand injury on the 16,000 members of the association in Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana, who, he said, are among the most law abiding citizens of those states, and have not intended to violate the law and do not think they have done so.

HOPE TO SETTLE STRIKE IN NORTHWEST

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 18.—Negotiations for settlement of differences in southwest coal fields began late today. District Presidents of the United Mine Workers of America after conference with operators deferred the walkout which was to have taken place tomorrow.

Deferring of the strike of 35,000 mine workers came after operators and representatives of the mine workers agreed to disregard the points of difference which led to the strike order and resume negotiations where they had been broken off.

ALLEGED PLOT AIDS LOAN DRIVE

German Agents Fail in Efforts to Block Sale of Liberty Loan Bonds

Publicity Given Plot Stimulates Subscriptions—Heavy Sales in Prospect for Closing Days of Campaign.

Washington, Oct. 18—The government to day set in motion machinery to apprehend and punish pro-German workers who have started an organized campaign in more than a dozen states to defeat the Liberty loan.

By telegraph from Salt Lake City, Secretary McAdoo authorized issuance of a statement here calling on all banks on which German pressure has been brought to bear in an effort to induce them not to aid the loan to report the circumstances to him and promising to prosecute to the limit of the law "disloyal and traitorous" persons making such attempts at intimidation.

Department of justice officials also began an investigation into the workings of the alleged conspirators with a view to prosecutions were justified under the espionage and other laws dealing with sedition and attempts to thwart the government's war purposes.

The nation's answer to the abortive efforts of the pro-German campaign was the greatest single day's subscriptions since the campaign started. Officials estimate that nearly $1,750,000,000 of the loan has been subscribed and heavy sales are reported in prospect for the closing days of the drive.

Reports to the treasury from many sections indicate that the alleged plot has not only failed, but has resulted in stimulating subscriptions where the conspirators were most active.

The Secretary's Statement

Secretary McAdoo's statement was as follows:

"From several sections of the country bankers have reported to me that some of their customers have threatened to withdraw deposits if their banks subscribed to the liberty loan. Such attempts of intimidation are made by disloyal and traitorous persons and are serious offenses against the law for which stern punishment should be inflicted.

"I earnestly request any banks, state or national, against which such threats have been made to report immediately by telegram or letter to the secretary of the treasury, Washington, the names and addresses of the persons guilty of such disloyal and traitorous actions and I shall see to it that they are dealt with to the limit of the law.

"I also request such banks to inform me immediately if any deposits are withdrawn because they subscribed to the liberty loan, giving them the name of the person or persons who have made such withdrawals.

"Every bank in the United States subscribing to the bonds of the United States will be protected with all the power and resources of the government. No bank shall be punished for doing its patriotic duty by assisting the government to prosecute the war to a swift and victorious conclusion."

Announce Progress of Loan

Progress of the loan thruout the nation was announced in the following statement issued by the treasury tonight:

"Official reports on subscriptions totalled $827,174,650 up to the close of the business yesterday or about $127,000,000 more than was reported at the close of the previous day.

"Estimates based on the customary daily increases of the official figures and unofficial reports from various parts of the country led to the belief tonight that between $1,500,000,000 and $1,750,000,000 had been subscribed.

"The official figures follow:

Boston	$ 95,800,000
New York	389,390,000
Philadelphia	26,345,000
Cleveland	95,300,000
Richmond	34,470,000
Atlanta	8,669,050
Chicago	91,279,000
St. Louis	7,354,350
Minneapolis	25,500,000
Kansas City	7,197,000
Dallas	6,830,000
San Francisco	39,040,150

"New York went over the $500,000,000 mark, an unofficial estimate from there tonight being $560,000,000. Chicago reports a whirlwind campaign and that district total is thought to be above $300,000,000. Detroit sent a telegram saying that $32,500,000, or seventy-six per cent of its quota was subscribed and that by Saturday night it surely would have an over-subscription. With another week to work, it was declared, the city's total will be very large."

BELIEVE STRIKE WILL SOON BE SETTLED

White Continues Efforts to Induce Miners to Return to Work

Fuel Administrator and Mine Worker Officials Believe Strike Movement Sporadic—Government Will Permit no Hoarding of Fuel.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Fuel Administrator Garfield and President John P. White of the United Mine Workers, expressed confidence today that the strike of coal miners in the central competitive field of Ohio-Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania would be settled within a short time.

President White left tonight for his headquarters in Indianapolis where he will continue his efforts to induce the men to return to work. Despite reports indicating a spread of strike sentiment among the men Mr. White was optimistic when he left Washington. At the fuel administration it was said that they viewed the strike movement as sporadic and believed that the trouble would be adjusted within a few days by an appeal to the patriotism of the men not to permit the nation's coal supply to be diminished.

Pending the outcome of negotiations between President White and miners, Dr. Garfield would not say what move he contemplated under his threat to the miners yesterday to insure the working of the mines at full capacity. Should Mr. White's efforts fail however, it is understood that the fuel administration is prepared to lay before President Wilson a drastic plan for making certain an adequate coal supply. Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners' organization appealed to yesterday by Dr. Garfield and President White telegraphed today that he was using his best efforts to induce the miners in Illinois to return to work.

When informed today of reports from some points in the middle west that manufacturers and others were hoarding coal, officials at the fuel administration said every effort would be made to prevent hoarding, and that whenever a case was found the coal would be seized and confiscated.

No official reports of hoarding, however, had reached the administration.

May Return to Work Soon

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—Operators tonight expressed the belief that miners on strike in Illinois would return to work by the first of next week at the latest, in response to the order of President Frank Farrington, Illinois district, U. M. W. A., that production of coal be resumed at once.

Meeting of pit committees were scheduled for tonight in many parts of the state, it was said, and many leaders were declared to be using their influence to bring about a resumption of work pending a decision of the fuel administration with reference to coal prices on which the proposed wage advance hinges.

It was reported, although without confirmation that President Farrington had called a convention here tomorrow of Illinois pit committees.

Mr. Farrington is expected to reach Springfield from Joliet, late tonight or tomorrow.

So far as was known at the offices of the Illinois coal operations association none of the mines idle as a result of the strike was in operation today.

VOICES CONFIDENCE IN ADMINISTRATION

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 18.—Voicing confidence in President Wilson and Secretary of War Newton D. Baker as Christian men, ministers and laymen attending the Illinois Synod of the Presbyterian church this afternoon refused to approve of a resolution appealing to Secretary Baker to cease military movements and reviews in cantonments on the Lord's day.

The resolution came from the Winnebago Presbytery in which the Rockford cantonment is located. The practices of having national army soldiers of the Rockford cantonment parade in review on Sunday had met with objection in that presbytery. Many delegates expressed the opinion that passage of the resolution would serve only to embarrass the president and secretary of war, and it was laid on the table.

The moderator was authorized to appoint a committee of fifteen to care for the moral and spiritual work among the soldiers in the cantonments.

The synod closed tonight with an address by Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, evangelist.

NO NEGOTIATIONS MADE FOR PEACE

London, Oct. 18.—Replying to a question in the house of commons today, Lord Robert Cecil, minister of blockade, denied that negotiations for terms of peace had taken place with the vatican or any of its agents or with any other religious organization today.

REPORTS WANTON KILLING OF NEGROES

Testimony Taken Before Committee Probing E. St. Louis Riot

President of Chemical Company Testifies as to Shooting of Negro Without Justification by Soldier—Hearings Continue at Belleville.

East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 18.—Wanton shooting at negroes by soldiers on patrol duty during the race riots here last May was testified to before the congressional committee investigating the riots today. Charles Roger, president of a large chemical company here told the committee that he saw a uniformed soldier shoot a negro who was standing with a group of his fellows a block away, merely to show some white men who were "twitting him," that he could shoot.

Mr. Rogers testified that a man in a crowd of whites remarked to the soldier:

"'What are you doing with that gun, you can't shoot.'"

"'The hell I can't,'" Roger quoted the soldier.

Whereupon the soldier fired into the crowd of negroes and one of the negroes fell, wounded, testified the witness.

Mr. Roger said he told Governor Lowden of that and similar incidents but that no special effort was made to learn the identity of the soldier.

Frank A. Hunter, general manager of the Swift & Co. packing plant testified that riots had driven forty per cent of their negro employes from work and that government orders are being delayed.

At the time of the riot, he said, railroads stoped handling freight for six days. He said he believed the riot was caused by ill-feeling of union men against negro laborers imported from the south and denied that his company had anything to do with these importations.

He said he had received anonymous threatening letters, that the packing plant would be blown up if union labor was not employed and threats to blow up the train that carried the negro employes to St. Louis after the rioting. Efforts had also been made, he said, to interfere with government orders. He said he is prepared to lay two specific cases before the department of justice.

Finish Direct Evidence.

Belleville, Ill., Oct. 18.—The prosecution this afternoon finished direct evidence in the trial of Charles Hanna, John Dow and Harry Robinson on charges of murder as a result of the killing of William Keyser a white man by a chance shot during the East St. Louis race riots. Two witnesses for the prosecution testified that Dow and Hanna boasted of having killed negroes and all three men have been identified by witnesses as members of the mob that began a slaughter of negroes on the afternoon of July 2. State contends that as the men were members of the mob they are guilty of its crimes, including the killing of Keyser by a bullet aimed at a negro.

Keyser's son has testified that his father was struck by a bullet after it had hit and killed a negro boy.

John Buckholtz, an ambulance driver, testifying for the prosecution this afternoon said he attempted to take away a dead or dying negro lying in the street. He said that Hanna, one of the defendants was standing by the body and said "If you take that nigger, I'll kill you just like I killed him."

The first witness for the defense was Fred Otto, a former policeman now under indictment on a charge of rioting and conspiracy.

RUSSIAN VESSELS ARE BOTTLED UP

Twenty Warships Surrounded in Moon Sound By German Warcraft

Russians Give Battle to Huns But are Outclassed by Reason of Superior Gun Range and Heavier Tonnage — Fresh Disaffection in German Fleet Reported.

Apparently contingents of the Russian fleet—in all about twenty warships of various classes—are bottled up in Moon sound, with a cordon of German warcraft barring their egress northward into the Gulf of Finland or south into the Gulf of Riga.

Brave, but outclassed by reason of superior gun range and heavier tonnage, the Russians gave battle to the Germans and attempted to force back the enemy armada off Oesel Island. Standing far outside the shell zone of the Russians however, the guns of the German dreadnaughts sank the battleship Slava—a relic of the days before the Russo-Japanese war—and so badly damaged other units that the Russian flotilla was forced to seek refuge in Moon sound between Moon Island and the Esthonia coast.

Immediately seeing their advantage the Germans, according to latest German official communication began extensive operations against Moon island, hammering its eastern shore batteries until they were silenced and also attacking and putting Russian guns on the mainland out of commission. Moon Island was captured and the Russians took refuge inside Moon sound. Thereupon the Germans threw warships to the eastern part of Kassar Bay, lying north of Moon Island, barring exit from the northern entrance to Moon Sound and also rushed contingents south of Moon Island, apparently closing the passage to the south in the Gulf of Riga.

Already the Germans have attempted to attack from the north into Moon sound but the Russian guns have held them back successfully. Among the German warships attacking the old line vessels of the Russian fleet were at least two dreadnaughts of the Grosser Kurfuerst type—vessels displacing 25,000 tons as against 13,560 tons for the Slava. A majority of the crew of the Slava was saved by Russian torpedo boats when the vessel took its final plunge.

Further Reports of Mutiny.

With this advantage of the German naval forces over the Russians however, comes news of fresh disaffection in the German fleet and also a mutiny in the Austrian fleet in the Adriatic and of bitter feeling between German and Austrian seamen in the Adriatic. German sailors at Ostend are reported to have refused to go aboard submarines for duty and have thrown overboard one of their officers. In the Adriatic the Austrian seamen have mutinied owing to bad food and ill treatment by their officers.

Bitterness between Germans and Austrians at Pola. Austria's naval base in the Adriatic, resulted in a fight in which men on both sides were killed. The trouble was due to overbearing conduct of German seamen attached to the submarine flotilla, and it was necessary to change the German base in the Adriatic further south.

No Noteworthy Land Fighting.

On land there have been no noteworthy battles. In Belgium British and French guns are still hammering German positions but there has been no indication of when a renewed infantry attack may be expected. French troops of the southern portion of the line have repulsed somewhat strong German attacks in the Verdun sector near Bezonvaux and also along the Aisne front in the Vauclerc plateau.

On the other fronts only reconnoitering engagements and bombardments are in progress.

Intensive air fighting took place Wednesday between the French and the Germans. Eleven German airplanes were driven down by French aviators, making a total of 36 destroyed up to that time this week. The German war office asserts that 13 French machines were sent to earth. Numerous air raids also have been carried out by French aviators against German positoins behind the lines, while Nancy again has been bombed by the Germans.

BENEFACTOR OF CATHOLIC CHURCH PASSES AWAY

SUFFERN, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Thomas Fortune Ryan whose death at her home near here was announced early today was perhaps one of the most generous benefactors of Catholic philanthropies in America. It is estimated by close friends that she had given $20,000,000 to various objects connected with the Catholic church. Because of her benefactions, Mrs. Ryan was made a papal countess in 1907 by Pope Pius X but she never used the title. At that time she and Countess Anna Leary were the only women in this country entitled to use that title.

Our soldiers in training are on the move from one part of the country to another. They get the benefit of hard work and change of climate.

Morgan county has the greatest corn crop in its history, even if frost did some damage to the very late sown.

With meatless days and wheatless days here, and sweetless days threatened, it behooves America to guard against heatless days.

East St. Louis real estate men recently enjoyed a dinner and decided that a 25 per cent increase in rents was justified—probably to pay for the dinner.

An exchange suggests that the recent conference of meat packers, which was expected to suggest something toward reducing the cost of meats, simply "passed the buck" to the farmers.

Sixty-five hundred thousand dollars an hour is the present money cost of the war. But the cost in the loss of life among young men is greater. Prayer may prevail. Try it. At any rate to "pray and fight" is our only hope.

There will be some big problems to be solved along economic lines when the war is over. The per capita indebtedness of the United States before the war was about $10. It is now well above $30, and the prospects are that it will be close to $60 before the end of the year. The tax burden in European countries is much heavier, and those nations have no such large resources with which to meet their debts as the United States possesses.

A GERMAN AUTHORITY.

The great German poet, Goethe, who did so much for the German people in softening and refining them, and giving them a literature that will ever exist, had this to say about their innate fierceness:

"The Prussians are cruel by nature; civilization will make them ferocious. I have often been pained to think of this German nation, so worthy in its individuals and so pitiable as a whole. The comparison of the German people with other peoples rouses painful feelings that I have tried by every possible means to avoid."

LOYAL AMERICAN GERMANS.

Rumors which have no basis in fact and which are calculated to damage the reputation of a citizen are quite as vicious in time of war as in time of peace. In the last six months, the country has had notable examples of disloyalty on the part of native born and non-German citizens and conspicuous examples of German-Americans who have supported the government of their adopted country with zeal and efficiency. The test of allegiance is not in the blood but in attitude and service.

A PENAL LAND OF ENGLAND.

Australian troops, next to the Canadians, are now counted as of greatest value to Great Britain. Not very long ago the great continent of Australia was the penal land of England, and one of its modes of punishment was to send men to the penal colony there. It was then deemed an inhospitable country. Possibly many of those sent were sent for alleged political crimes. Be that as it may the men sent were not so desperate as believed and they set to and ultimately established order among themselves. The great Australian commonwealth, now such a valuable asset of Great Britain, is reputed to have had its beginning in some such humble way as this.

FINGY WANTS TO DO HIS BIT.

The fighting spirit is admirably shown by "Fingy" Conners, of Buffalo, who, altho now the owner of millions, once mixed with the longshoresmen and stevedores of the Lake Erie water front on equal terms, wants to abandon the luxuries of life and do his bit.

The erstwhile chairman of the Democratic State Committee of New York State has applied at the War Department for the job as director general of docks. He doesn't want to stay in this country at that. What he wants to do is to go to France and take charge there of the men who are unloading American ships. Conners went to Washington because he had heard that three regiments of stevedores were being organized for service on the docks in France. It was said that ships carrying supplies for American troops abroad frequently were held up for days because they couldn't be unloaded.

"That's the kind of a job I'm fitted for," Conners told a friend. "I'm too old for a private and I don't know enough to be an officer. But I can unload a ship. I could do that when I was twenty. I can unload any ship, no matter how big it is, or how the cargo is stowed, within twenty four hours."

NEW YORK'S LAKE COVERS TEN THOUSAND ACRES.

In connection with the celebration by New York City of the completion of its new water system, the Catskill Aqueduct, Mayor Mitchel's committee on the celebration has issued a booklet in which a general history of aqueducts is given, together with a biography of the great engineering feat which has made it possible to bring a supply of water to the metropolis from Ashokan, 120 miles up state in the hills. The booklet reminds us that the earliest aqueduct of which there seems to be a precise record was built about 2600 years ago by Hezekiah, King of Judah. The city of Jerusalem had been getting the water of the river Gihon thru a surface conduit. Expecting an attack by the Assyrians, Hezekiah "built an underground tunnel about 1700 feet long to carry the water of that stream to a reservoir or pool called Siloam." This pool, hewn out of rock, was 71 feet by 75 feet, and lower down the valley the ruler of Jerusalem built another pool to receive its overflow. Ten years ago the first sod was turned in the valley of Esopus, N. Y., where now there is a 10,000 acre lake, whose waters have been led thru mountains and thrust under the Hudson, finally reaching the distant city with a gravity force sufficient to send it up to the sixteenth story of the skyscrapers, and filling 3000 miles of mains.

NO PEACE BUT A JUST PEACE.

Three years before the present war began seven members of the Bible Students' Association started on a world's journey in the interest of missions and to gauge the prospects of eventual peace among the nations. We do not know whether the seven made a report on the likelihood of lasting peace in the world, but if they did and declared that the prospects for prolonged quiet were bright it is probable that today they are not calling attention to their prophecy.

It is, perhaps, worthy of attention that one of the members of the peace mission was Brigadier General W. P. Hall, United States Army (retired). Many American soldiers have been churchmen, and, despite the fact that they were always willing to fight at the dictates of patriotism and of duty, they have been consistent counselors of peace, but never peace at any price.

The Chicago Post says that General Hall, who traveled round the world on the missionary and peace errand, fought on a dozen fields for what he believed to be the right. It was he who once offered himself three times as a mark for the rifles of a band of Indians in order that their fire might be directed away from men whom he was trying to rescue. The mere fact that a man is a lover of peace does not mean that he has not in him the qualities of a fighter.

The peace-at-any-price man, however, is an entirely different person from him who loves and will accept only a peace which has in it the exact justice of righteousness. Sherman's "War is hell" did not mean that because war is hell it never should be entered into. There are wars of justice, and no peace that cannot lay claim to justice should follow any war.

ILLINOIS' FIRST CAPITAL.

Kaskaskia was 100 years old when it became the first capital of the state of Illinois in 1818. However, it was not a very imposing city, says the Rock Island Argus.

A western traveler, who visited the town in November, 1819, said: "Remained in this inconsiderable village this day. Much disappointed in the appearance of the long talked of Kaskaskia. It can never be a place of much business. The land office is kept at this place. There are some neat buildings, but they are generally old, ugly and inconvenient. Their streets are irregular and of bad widths. The inhabitants are all generals, colonels, majors, land speculators or adventurers, with now and then a robber and cut-throat."

A weekly paper published in Kaskaskia in 1818 contained advertisements of nine general stores, an establishment for the manufacture and sale of hats and three tailor shops. There was only one tavern, Bennett's and its accommodations were severely taxed by the constitutional convention of 33 members.

From 1765 on Kaskaskia had declined steadily in population, but in 1809, when it became the capital of the new territory of Illinois and secured the head office for that section of the country, it took a new lease of life. Its population, which had decreased until it totaled not more than fifty families in 1807, grew until at the time of the admission of the state, the city had about one thousand inhabitants.

The capital was removed from Kaskaskia to Vandalia in 1820 and that sealed the doom of Kaskaskia. The town dwindled to a mere handful of tumble down houses, and in 1844 the county seat was removed to Chester. During a subsequent inundation of the Mississippi a new channel was cut by the water of the Kaskaskia river just above the town so that all that is left today of the first capital of Illinois is a building or two on an island in the Mississippi.

Rippling Rhymes

WILD GEESE

Wild geese were flying south today; I heard them honking overhead; and to my aunt I paused to say, "The winter's coming, autumn's dead. It's up to me to lay in coal, to buy a stock of flour and spuds, to strip my slim and meagre roll for weather strips and winter duds. The weather prophet in his den, may tell us what next week may bring, but all the prophecies of men are merely tommyrot, by jing. I would not for cold days prepare, if warned by any human seer; man says tomorrow will be fair, and it is dark and bleak and drear. Man says tomorrow will be cold, and it's so hot we stew and sweat; no weather rightly was foretold by any human prophet yet. The wild geese have no maps or charts, no instruments of brass or steel; they do not try to break our hearts with "highs" or "lows" or kindred spiel. They have no traps to measure wind, to weigh the clouds or test the air, but when for southern climes they've skinned, for wintry days we should prepare. I saw the wild geese gallivant, some southern island is their goal; so lend me forty bones, dear aunt, and I'll lay in a stock of coal."

FARMERS AND BREEDERS DIRECTORY NOW COMPLETED

G. A. Holt business manager of the Prairie Farmer has been here in Morgan county all week making arrangements for the completion of gathering of data for the Morgan and Scott County Farmer's and Breeder's Directory. This work was started last summer but was postponed on account of so many farmers being away from home due to the threshing season which of course made it impossible for Prairie Farmer representatives to get the information to be published in the directory.

Mr. Holt states that a little less than half of the two counties have been covered and that 1,256 orders for the directory and Prairie Farmer have already been secured which means that between 60 and 70 per cent of the farmers in the two counties are ordering the directory.

Prairie Farmer intends to cover every county in the state with this work. Twenty-seven counties have already been finished and delivered.

Morgan county and Scott county need an accurate directory and will be able to have one by co-operating with the Prairie Farmer's men who are making a personal call on every farmer in the two counties. This is the proper way to do the work but it is very expensive. Every farmer in Morgan and Scott counties should aid Prairie Farmer's men and thus reduce the work as much as possible.

Prairie Farmer's influence in the increased wealth of these two counties has been immense. For seventy six years it has been preaching the doctrine of improved methods of farming.

When Prairie Farmer realized the real need for a reliable directory of each county it seemed like a task too big to tackle.

But thru a careful study of the work and careful selection of men a directory organization has been effected. In fact Prairie Farmer is the first concern to really put sufficient capital and brains into the work to produce a thoroly reliable Farmer's and Breeder's Directory. A county and state map will be included with each copy of the directory.

HAYES ARRESTED THURSDAY

Elza Hayes who was exonerated by the coroner's jury Wednesday for the killing of William Stevens was arrested again Thursday by Constable Adams at the instigation of State's Attorney Robinson. Hayes was before Justice Coons and his hearing was set for today and bond fixed at $500. Being unable to furnish it he was committed to jail to await today's hearing.

Speaking of the arrest of Hayes, State's Attorney Robinson yesterday said: "I have no criticism to make of the action of the coroner's jury in exonerating Hayes. However, the fact remains that someone has been killed and Hayes is the man who did the killing. It seems to me that some action should be taken to uphold the law. Stevens as the evidence and the wounds showed, was shot in the back. Nothing in my opinion was produced at the inquest to show that Elza Hayes or anyone else was in immediate danger of their lives. Therefore it seems to me that murder has been committed and the matter should be placed before the next grand jury for investigation."

FARM PROPERTY

For years ahead the outlook for the farm is most promising and the most far sighted farmers are using their credit and cheap money to get possession of farm lands while they can be had. What many men need just now is nerve to back their judgment.

(1) Monday we looked over 300 acres of land located one and a half miles from a good thriving town and three miles from a nice little village and seven miles from the county seat. One-half of this land is as fine black land as you could ask and well tiled. Of the other half it is all good level timber soil, except about 30 acres which is a little cut with draws and ditches but no hills. This farm is fenced in convenient sized fields. There are 30 acres in blue grass, 40 acres in meadow, 116 acres of wheat, 96 acres of corn, balance stubble. There is a brick house of six rooms, an excellent barn for 14 horses, two oat bins, corn crib and room for 30 tons of loose hay. The entire barn is concreted. There is a granary for 1500 bushels of grain, big implement shed and stock scales, a three room tenant house and other out buildings. The wheat crop alone this year sold for $5,000. For immediate sale and possession March 1st with taxes paid we can sell this farm at $125 per acre, or will exchange for a smaller prairie form north or east of Jacksonville. This is your opportunity.

(2) Southeast of Woodson we have a farm of 80 acres with a new seven room house, new horse barn, good cattle barn and excellent hog barn and all in good condition. Farm is mostly in grass and can be had for $9000.

(3) 160 acres in the south part of the county of which one half is good black land an the balance all good farming land except a few acres near the barn. The land is in high state of fertility, all fenced, fair house and plenty of other buildings. Must be seen to be appreciated. Price, $150 per acre.

Some of my friends told me to give her Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it did her more good than all the doctoring. I can recommend this medicine as being good for girls at that time of life."—MRS. LOUISE BECKER, 228 S. 8th Street.

QUINCY ILLS.—"A few years ago I developed a severe case of woman's weakness. I would have backaches and pains in my side. I can't begin to tell how miserable I was or how I suffered. I tried everything I could hear of in the way of medicine, with little relief. At last I heard of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was only necessary for me to take two bottles to completely cure me of this ailment. I am glad to give testimony recommending 'Favorite Prescription.'"—MRS. JOHN AUGUSTIN, 839 S. Sixth Street.

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 18.—The state convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, at its afternoon session today ordered the large American flag used at its conventions for the past twenty years removed from the pulpit of the First Methodist church, where the sessions are being held because it violated a state law in having lettered on its face this motto:

"W. C. T. U. for God, for Home and Native Land."

This action was taken after an hour's discussion during which many delegates spoke for and against the motion. The flag was then presented to Miss Helen Hood, president for many years, and a flag without letters substituted on the pulpit. COAL SITUATION SERIOUS IN CHICAGO

Supply of City Lower Than at Any Time in History—Cold Weather Predicted.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—With cold weather and snow flurries predicted for tomorrow and the coal supply of the city lower than at any time in its history, hope was held out by heads of the miners' union and those in charge of the fuel administration that a settlement might be reached in the unauthorized strike of 70,000 miners in the Illinois field.

Meanwhile all persons are awaiting word from the head of the federal fuel administration, Dr. Harry Garfield at Washington.

Dr. Garfield has been fully advised since the beginning of the strike of the condition in not only the Illinois district, but in Indiana, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas. So far as could be learned tonight while the fuel administrator has been in frequent communication with his aides here and the miner's leaders he has given no intimation of his probable action. Immediate action in the coal crisis (for a crisis is what is the concensus of opinion calls the situation with regard to Chicago and the state) was demanded in a telegram sent late today to the federal fuel administration by the executive committee of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

price of potatoes delivered in the markets has closely followed the price the producer has received plus the cost of distribution to the market.

"The larger supply of cars and the large harvest warrant lower prices later in the fall.

"Beet sugar prices are being controlled by the manufacturers upon a basis that should reach the retailer from 6 to 8 cents a pound depending upon the locality.

"The price of new Cuban, Porto Rican and Hawaiian harvest in December, will maintain the beet level as soon as it is available. The beet level is one and three quarters below August prices and without the concerted action of beet manufacturers and the refiners of cane sugar, prices would now be un to 15 cents owing to the short supplies during the next few weeks.

May Import Oils.

"In order to provide equally good substitutes for lard and cooking fats, the food administration is arranging for the import of larger supplies of cocoanut, nut and soy bean oils. This should also affect the prices of soap.

"Since the food administration came into existence on August 10 a great deal of exertion has been required to remedy food situations growing out of the over export and short supplies of the 1916 harvest.

"There were no reserve stocks in practically all of the main staples with which to enter the new harvest year and, in fact, in some of the principal staples the exports had proceeded to such lengths that there was an absolute under supply of our own necessities during the past two months.

Car Shortage a Factor.

"On the top of this situation various factors have interfered with the earlier arrival of the new harvest. The farmer in preparing for a thirty per cent increase of winter wheat acreage in the face of the shortage in agricultural labor has prevented the free marketing of many commodities and in addition to these difficulties there exists thru the country owing to the large coal and munitions shipments a considerable car shortage.

"Resulting from these causes there has been periodic shortages in first one commodity after another. In one locality in the United States after another and a large part of the energies of the food administration has been absorbed in securing a distribution and a re-distribution of existing supplies in such a manner as to keep the country supplied with foodstuffs and but for the co-operation of the railroads in meeting first one emergency situation after another we should have local famine in one commodity after another in a great many sections.

"Furthermore, the authority of the food administration does not extend over combinations of growers and producers at one end of the chain, nor does it extend over the great majority of retailers at the other end.

"The distribution chain lying between, that is, the wholesalers, warehouse, commission men and manufacturers of the prime commodities, has required a great deal of study and development for its proper regulation and these regulations are now coming into force."

DR. HANLEY ADVOCATES "PUNCH" IN BUSINESS

Tells Two Hundred Jacksonville Business Men That Aggressiveness and Perseverance Important Essentials—Pays High Compliment to Personnel of Local Business Men's Association—Address Filled With Brilliant Epigrams.

Nuggets of Wisdom From Dr. Hanley

"Be cheerful; boost and don't knock."
"Have a spirit of co-operation; each failure hurts the others".
"Buy at home and if you are a merchant set the example yourself".
"The merchants of Jacksonville are an especially fine set of men; patronize them and keep your money at home."
"Advertise; advertise by word, by newspapers and by satisfied customers."
"Cultivate the customers you have as well as seek for new ones".
"The day of the liar in business is gone."
"The man who sticks, keeps a stiff upper lip and smiles will succeed".
"If you fail there is something wrong with you.".

Fraternity, good cheer, wit, wisdom, sound advice, eloquence, merriment and general good time characterized the banquet tendered Dr. Hanley and Mr. Fisher by the business men of the city at the hall of Illini lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., on East State street last evening.

The feast was prepared by the wives of the Patriarchs and the husbands served as waitors and general utility men and the feast was all that could be desired in the way of menu and service. Grace was said by Dr. A. B. Morey and about two hundred sat at the banquet tables.

At the close of the banquet there was a unanimous desire for a solo by Mr. Fisher and that gentleman sang in his fautless manner a beautiful selection, "I know He loveth me" and as an encore gave tnother, "The Little Grey Home in the West" in a fine manner.

On motion of Dr. Rammelkamp the thanks of the gathering were tendered the order for the use of the hall and the ladies for the banqut.

Chairman Capps in introducing the speaker said he was proud to belong to the Business Men's Association of Jacksonville as it was composed of first class men who showed their qualities in movements for the general welfare. He convulsed his audience by remarking that Dr. Hanley was educated as a lawyer and followed the profession and then was converted and turned to the ministry.

As usual Dr. Hanley won fresh and greater laurels by his effort of which a short outline is given:

"I hardly know why it is but nearly always when I am introduced it is once mentioned that I was a lawyer and the only reason I can give was what flashed into my mind once introduced to Hon. Elihu Root and I gave this quotation from the Bible.

"'Come from among them and be clean".

"Once in the city of Washington I was introduced by a man who said he would not make a long speech as he was not there to bore the audience, Dr. Hanley was there for that purpose.

Pleads for Boosters.

"I offer a plea tonight for the finer side of business. I know as the days go by it is harder to do business but a man should not stay in his business unless he believes in it. We need the cheer up spirit; to boost our city. What if the pavements are torn up for six months; walk up the alleys; tearing up means improvements and progress. I am glad to know you are going to have new pavements, a soldiers' monument and other good things.

"We can have no idea how near we came to a fearful state of things at the beginning of this war. We had been a borrowing nation when all at once the paper of the world was dumped upon us and then it was that bankers got together, talked cheerfully, encouraged all to be cheerful and so a fearful condition was averted.

"If a traveler comes to Jacksonville and hears one after another growl about hard times he will go away with a very poor impression of the place. But if all are cheerful then he will get a different idea. Our first Liberty loan was the greatest accomplishment we ever put thru and the second is going to succeed as well.

"We need a spirit of co-operation. Time was when business men hated each other but it is different now. A man was onced asked what he would rather have in all the world provided his competitor had the same only twice as much and after studying a while he said, "Have one eye put out." Competition is good but killing competitors is only evil.

Honestly in Advertising.

"I am often asked to give Sears, Roebuck & Co., a dig but if all business men who complain of them would buy at home the case would be different. Jacksonville merchants are the peers of any I have met anywhere. Boost your town; put up a big sign at each railroad station saying Jacksonville is a lovely place full of attractions; let us show them to you".

And you have them here to show.

Advertising is a good thing and the newspapers are a medium most valuable and greatly to be desired is a satisfied customer extolling your wears and yourself. Cultivate the customers you have as well as look for new ones. Credit is the biggest leak we have and it is not right that the cash customer should pay for the bad debts.

TWO—HANLEY Banquet z KM

"The day if the liar in business is gone. Truth pays best. You have a factory in this place; not especially large but from coast to coast the people know they can depend on 100 per cent wool goods when the factory says they are supplying them. The man who smiles, keeps a stiff upper lip and air of confidence and assurance is the man who gets the desired accomodation at the bank. Never let the other fellow know when your are licked. Have the courage to take hold and hold on like the bulldog in the Hoosier Schoolmaster.

"A man was anxious to place a scripture above the pulpit of his church so he told the minister to supply the verse and he would go to Boston and get the material for the motto. He left the verse and size space in his every day coat pocket and arriving at the city wrote back for them. When the answer came an elderly unappropriated blessing was the operator to receive the message and when she took it she fainted. Restored they asked her what was the matter and pointing to the pad with the message on it she fainted again and this was the message: "To us a child is born; eight feet by four."

Affability in Clerks.

"I have generally found in Jacksonville a very affable set of clerks but few exceptions. I stepped into one store and asked for an article I knew they couldn't supply and when I asked the clerk for it he said they didn't have it; didn't know where I could find it and didn't know whether they could send for it or not. I wouldn't give that clerk fifteen cents a month.

"I went to another store and made my request. The clerk said he was sorry they didn't have it; asked the properitor if it could be had in town and was told not and then said if I desired they would try and get it for me and smiled all the time. That's the kind of a salesman to have. We are in business to serve the public; not have the public serve us. In spite of the war this is the best nation on earth and these the best days we ever had. The country will rise to grand opportunity and if you fail something is wrong with you."

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Jacksonville woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Jacksonville woman's experience.

Mrs. Helen Donaldson, 236 E. Washington St., says: "Sometimes I over-exerted in working about the house and it affected my kidneys, bringing on attacks of backache. The trouble would put me past going for a time. I had dizzy spells also, but rheumatic twinges were the worst symptoms of the complaint. The pains would settle in my lower limbs and make them swell, especially around my knees. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Allcott's Drug Store, brought quick relief and I haven't had to take any medicine for my kidneys now for quite a while."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Donaldson had. Foster-Milburn, Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of State street church Thursday it was announced that the society has purchased a Liberty Loan bond, and is the first local church organization to respond to the country's call in this particular way. The members spent the entire day at the church, engaged in sewing for the Red Cross. ILLINOIS TROOPS AT CAMP TAYLOR

Will Not Be Allowed Furlough to Return Home to Vote—Many To Be Transferred to Camp Shelby in Mississippi.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 18.—None of the soldiers of the National Army from Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois now in training at Camp Zachary Taylor will be allowed furloughs to go to their homes to vote.

This information is contained in announcement made by the Division Staff of the 84th Division, National Army in reply to numerous inquiries from politicians in all three states from which the men here are drawn.

The letters were of three classes. One merely asked for information. Another group expressed a desire that the men be allowed to return. intimating they might "save the day", while the third group were from those who were anxious that the men not be allowed to return. Several writers asserted that the result of local elections hinged on whether or not the soldiers returned to vote.

Col. Laurence Halstead, division chief of staff, said there was not the remotest chance of the me nbeing granted furloughs to return to their homes to vote unless the war department issued special orders to that effect.

Officers believe a few days absence from the camp would mean a setback of weeks in training and a long delay in getting the men ready for the front.

In Louisville 700 men at Camp Taylor would normally have voted. If all or nearly all were of one political party it can be seen what effect it would have on a close election. As election day falls on Tuesday the men will not be able to vote as leave is only given on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday.

Transfer of Troops

Arrangements have been made for the immediate transfer of three thousand men of the National Army from Camp Zachary Taylor to Camp Shelby at Hattiesburg, Miss.

The greater portion of the men are drawn from the Indiana contingent at Camp Zachary Taylor, and represent half of the contribution that will be made from here toward filling up the ranks of the Indiana and Kentucky National Guard division in training at Camp Shelby.

The men to go to Camp Shelby at this time are:

20th Provisional Training Battalion, drawn from Crittenden, Caldwell, Trigg, Hopkins and Union counties, Kentucky.

7th Provisional Training Battalion drawn from Newton, Jasper, Pulaski, Benton, Warren and Tippecanoe counties, Indiana.

8th Provisional Training Battalion drawn from Vermillion, Fountain, Montgomery, Parke and Putnam counties, Indiana.

9th Provisional Training Battalion drawn from Greene, Knox, and Daviess counties, Indiana.

10th Provisional Training Battalion drawn from Morgan, Owen, Monroe, Martin, Lawrence, Johnson and Brown counties, Indiana.

14th Provisional Training Battalion drawn from Randolph, Henry and Wayne counties, Indiana.

16th Provisional Training Battalion drawn from Blackford, Wells, Huntington and Wabash counties, Indiana.

The order directing the transfer contained the positive information that no officers would be transferred with the men.

Orders recently received by Major General Harry C. Hale, commanding the 84th Division, National Army at Camp Zachary Taylor provided for the transfer of 6,000 men to Camp Shelby and 2,000 to Camp Pike at Little Rock as soon as accommodations at those camps were ready for the men.

The order to transfer 3,000 men to Camp Shelby is the result of word from there that the camp was ready for that many men. In the second 3,000 to go forward at a later date the majority of the men will be from Kentucky it is said.

Troop trains have been furnished for the movement, and it will begin at once with no ceremonies and no farewells. A special detail of officers will accompany the trains but will return immediately.

FOR A COUNTY ADVISOR

Sidney B. Smith, representing the United States department of Agriculture, who is assisting the Morgan County Farmers' Club to secure a sufficient membership to establish and maintain for three years a county farm bureau and county agent, is well pleased with the reception he has had from the farmers whom he has met the past three days. He has canvassed three rural communities and secured a goodly number of pledges in each.

Many of those who have signed cards are familiar with the work of county agents in other counties and are convinced that a farm bureau has proven a profitable investment to members of the organization sustaining it and that it has helped wonderfully in promoting and developing community organization and co-operation and is furthering civic projects for the public good.

The following who are interested in the development of the agriculture of Morgan county have already pledged ten dollars a year for three years for a farm bureau and county advisor:

SWINDLER VISITS GRIGGSVILLE

Griggsville Press: What has all the appearance of a clever swindle was "nipped in the bud" in time to prevent any loss on anybody's part, about two weeks ago, in this city, and in the hope that it may prevent the scheme being worked somewhere else we give a few particulars. About the time stated a stranger, neatly but not flashily dressed, appeared to W. O. Cunningham in search of a good farm. He said his name was Robert E. Conway, and his home was in Ardmore, Okla. Mr. Cunningham took him out to see an 80-acre farm 3½ miles northwest of Baylis, over the line in Adams county, belonging to Henry Smith. The stranger agreed to take the place after arranging the details at the price asked, $5,650, coming to Griggsville, where he gave a check for $500 on an Ardmore bank to bind the deal. As a matter of precaution, Cashier Hoyt, not knowing the man, forwarded the check direct to Ardmore, telling the bank if the funds were not there to wire him. He got quick returns, the message stating that no funds were there in Conway's name but other checks were held against him. In the meantime the supposed purchaser of the farm, while waiting for the abstracts to be made, went to the farm and sold what was under contract to be his half of the hay in the barn to R. L. Peacock, but before he could get the money on the check Mr. Cunningham telephoned Mr. Peacock what he learned and payment was at once stopped. As far as known nothing has been seen of the stranger around here since his game was found out.

KEEP EVERY COW ON THE JOB

Bossie is One of the Best Allies the American Soldier Has, So See That She Does Her Part.

By H. E. Young, Secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

Herbert Hoover says, "Food will win the war." Obviously, this is so. The contest is a food endurance test. America must farm as well as arm. Greater food production and greater food conservation will determine the outcome.

As a food producer, the dairy cow is unsurpassed. She not only produces a perfectly balanced human food, but supplies a product from which many other important foods are made. The production of dairy products has not kept pace with the increased demands, and now, under war conditions, the deficiency is alarming.

We must all respond to the call of patriotism. Our country's need must first be considered. The present food situation is paramount.

Patriotism demands that every cow be kept working. Duty says enlist every cow in the fight for food. Don't sell a cow to be slaughtered. She is worth vastly more for milk than for beef. Keep her on the job, even if feed does cost a lot and you can only "break even." Keep the heifers and heifer calves also.

Food emergency demands that not a female dairy animal be sacrificed. More roughage and less grain will cut the cost. "Rough" them over winter on corn stalks and straw, if need be. They are all needed for backing up the boys in the trenches. Do this bit for your country. Help Herbert Hoover increase dairy food supplies for Uncle Sam. Mobilize Bossy, and keep her from going to the shambles at a time when every cow saved means the saving of American lives and to more speedily win the great war.

GIRLS! MAKE LEMON LOTION TO WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY SKIN

In all weathers the skin and complexion can be kept wonderfully clear, soft and white by the use of this inexpensive lemon lotion which any girl or woman can easily prepare.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and hidden beauty of any skin. Those who will make it a habit to gently massage this lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands once or twice daily may be repaid with a skin that is flexible and young looking and a peach-like complexion.—Adv.

A THANKSGIVING DAY THAT WILL BE DIFFERENT

Thanksgiving is a day that is typically American—rich in the contemplation of the hope and courage and gratitude of our pious ancestors; and a day set apart from all the others in the year for a national expression of faith—faith in ourselves and in our country and in our God; and to show our own thankful appreciation of those divine blessings that it has been our privilege to enjoy.

Thanksgiving is a day of especial significance in our home life—a day for the assembling of all members of a family—putting aside the petty differences, the vanities, and little jealousies, and meeting as women, men and children to strengthen the family ties as they lengthen, to hold fast to the ancestral home and its precious memories.

Thanksgiving is the one day that takes the heart of the nation back to the farms and the country. Not alone as the place from which all the wealth first comes, not merely because upon its bountiful harvest depends our nationel prosperity; but more because a home in the country better represents our sentimental idea of what a home should be. Those who have known a home in the country look back upon it with tender recollections, and those who have not known it idealize it. In mind and heart the country home is associated with the pioneer builders of our nation.

This year Thanksgiving day will be different. We have had a full harvest. As a people we have prospered. As a nation we have reasserted and reaffirmed our allegiance to the God of our fathers. We have gone out into the world. We have given freely of our wealth to the impoverished and hurt peoples. We have helped all—helped to feed and ncurish the young and the old, to bind up the wounds of all those in this war.

And, finally, we came to the supreme test—to send to the battle front our sons. And on Thanksgiving day will there not be a new pride, a new hope, that will lift the song in the mother-heart in simply knowing that her son is one of the millions of sons who have consecrated themselves to fight for the United States, the freedom of the world and to save our Thanksgiving day, in our nation and in our home life, in the spirit in which it has been our joy to hold it?

The first obligation of every American is to do everything he can to win this war. Compared to this, all other things are small and insignificant.

Your efforts to win this war are the active expression of your citizenship. Your zeal will reflect your conscientiousness, your moral worth, and your sympathy with humankind.

Evasion and hesitancy, in thought or action, but add to the price we must pay—the blood price, numbered in men and writ deep upon the mother-heart.

But we can lessen the number and reduce the hurt if we simply do our duty; do everything we can to win the war, and win it quickly.—Hiram Moe Greene in Woman's World for November.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother. If coated or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailmen, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." —Adv.

THE RAIN WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

A refreshing rain fell Wednesday night but it was not at all general. Toward Murrayville there was little and not so much eastward while northwestward more fell than in Jacksonville. It will be a great help to the fall wheat tho not enough for the grass. One gentleman remarked that a heavy rain just now would be an injury to newly sown wheat as it would tend to pack the ground and hinder the tender plants from getting a good start. He thought much rain was hardly needed for this crop.

FRIENDLY RIVALRY IN A FARMERS' CONTEST

People are still talking about the splendid exhibits made by 35 or 40 farmers of the Cummings estate at the Farmers Institute last week in Pekin. About a week before the time for the Institute. Col. J. M. James undertook to interest his tenants by offering a special prize for products from their farms, Nearly every tenant who was notified of the contest entered corn, wheat and oats and other farm products, and his wife entered a great variety of canned goods and garden products. These displays occupied three sides of the big exhibition hall and attracted much more interest than all of the other farm products display put together. The quality of exhibits from the Cummings farms was exceedingly good and a lot of friendly rivalry was aroused between the exhibitors.

One of the very interesting features of the show was the competition among corn growers who showed samples of corn raised from seed purchased of Sommer Bros. These men showed splendid corn for the special prizes offered by the enterprising seed breeders. Sommer Bros, also had a special display of their own, showing the different kinds and types of seeds which they are breeding

The Next Three Years

The Tazewell County Farm Bureau will be continued another three years This was decided at a meeting of the directors last July To test the sentiment in the county. Frank Harris of Tremont signed up 50 members in that township, the same number as he had there for the three years which are now drawing to a close. Nearly all of the old members signed up again, the only exception being two or three who had never shown much interest in the work. L. R. Welk has signed up about the same number in Morton township. Last week Frank Harris signed about 75 at the Farmers Institute. Township representatives in various parts of the county are working on the lists now. Some of the members are coming to those who have membership books and signing voluntarily. The list for the next three years will have a good many new names as Frank Harris reports that several men have signed for the next three years who never cared for it before. The three year term which is now drawing to a close ends June 1,1918, and the three year term for which the men are signing now begins on that date and extends to June 1, 1921. They are signing on the same basis as heretofore, with a membership fee of $10 a year.

Seed Purchases This Year.

The Illinois Agricultural Association which is a state association of farm bureaus has arranged for the purchase of clover, alfalfa and other farm seeds for the members at wholesale prices. The plan has been worked out for making these purchases from month to month until February as the members may desire. This makes it possible to offer better accommodations in this respect than could be granted heretofore. Many of the members are ordering clover, alfalfa and soy beans for next year.

Many Mares to go South

Frank Harris representing the Farm Bureau plans to get two more carloads of mares together in the near future to go to South Carolina. Arrangements are being made now for their purchases and shipment.

WHAT THE VICTORY OR DEFEAT OF GERMANY MEANS TO EVERY AMERICAN

(Contributed by Owen Johnson to the National Security League's campaign of Patriotism Through Education.)

I have been in close touch with French public opinion, not only through several trips to the front but from a long stay of ten months in France during the last year. If every American could have the same opportunity of realizing for himself why the great French nation in the fourth year of the war despite the devastation to its territory, the loss of its manhood and the improverishment of its women, remains steadfast in its faith, willing to combat for ten years if necessary, there would be but one opinion in America.

France understands that so long as the German military autocracy exists, with its giant obsession of a German Roman Empire subjecting all other races to the vaunted scientific efficiency of one. German Caesarism intends to destroy democracy without, in order to throttle it within.

A German victory today (and a peace that does not break on the battle-field the German strength will be a German victory) means that France will have to sacrifice its democratic liberty in order to be constantly mobilized under a centralizing dictatorship. A German victory today means the failure of democracy in Europe and the certainty of our relinquishing our spiritual protectorate over the American hemisphere. Eventually that would mean German colonization of South and Central America, with a final, devasting contest forty years hence between us and the modern legions of a German Casear.

While the hereditary military conception of government abides in Prussia, the world cannot continue half German and half democracy.

Owen Johnson.

GETS BIG CONTRACT

Will Take Five Years to Finish the Job.

Pike County Republican: The A. V. Wills & Sons company, of this city, the big drainage contractors, have just landed the biggest contract in the history of the firm. The work is to be done for the Lake Worth Drainage District in the vicinity of Palm Beach, Florida, and calls for the expenditure of $1,029,600. Besides that, the Wills company will construct for the district $200,000 worth of concrete water controls for sub-irrigation projects, bringing the total amount of money involved close to $1,250,000.

In fullfilling the contract the Wills people will dredge 300 miles of ditches.

It will take them five years to complete the work.

They will displace Seven Million, Two Hundred Thousand cubic yards of earth and One Hundred and Eighty Thousand cubic yards of coral rock, re-claiming thousands of acres of land for truck farming and gardening.

The work is undertaken upon what is known as a "cost plus" contract, which means that the commissioners of the Lake Worth district will buy all the drainage boats and equipment from the Wills company and will pay them actual costs plus a certain percentage of profit for the entire work, in which case it will be seeen the district will get its work done at a reasonable price, and the Wills company is certain to make profit.

The company has been working on contracts in Florida and South Carolina for several years and a number of Pike county boys are employed on the various jobs.

Miss Anna Locke of Springfield is visiting her cousins, Mrs. J. Bart Johnson and Miss Ella Spencer of this city.

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Could Do No Work. Now Strong as a Man.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 165 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think money is well spent which purchases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Jos. O'BRYAN, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women! Keep It On Dresser! Never Let Corns Ache Twice

Instantly! Few drops stop corn-soreness, then corns and calluses shrivel, loosen and lift out with fingers—No pain!

The world owes thanks to the genius in Cincinnati who discovered freezone.

Tiny bottles of the magic fluid can now be had at any drug store for a few cents. You simply apply a few drops of this freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a hardened callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose and shriveled that you lift it off with the fingers. Not a bit of pain or soreness is felt when applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the skin or flesh.

For a few cents one can now get rid of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of feet without any pain. Ladies! Keep it on the dresser.

CORN RALLIES AFTER EARLY DECLINES

Bullish Constructions on Announcements From Food Administration Touches Market.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Bullish constructions on announcements from the food administration touching corn and hog values rallied the corn and provision markets today after arly declines. Corn closed firm ¼ to ⅝@⅝c net higher, with December $1.15¼ to $1.15⅝ and May $1.11⅛ to $1.11¼. Oats gained ¼@⅜@½c. The finish in provisions rose 15c.
Predictions of a cold wave tonight were chiefly responsible for temporary downturns of corn. Low temperatures promised seemed to imply that the crop would be more quickly put into good condition for shipment but when attention was directed to statements of the food administrator denying that government officials were planning a reduction of hog values to $16 a hundred weight, corn began to ascend.
Export demand lifted oats.
Sharp declines in the hog market weakened provisions at first. Later demand broadened from packers and seaboard interests influenced abbarently by the published views of the food administrator.

Rails shared in the rise tho less substantiall than industrials and equipments.
Rock Island, Missouri Pacific and other western and southern lines were accompanied by 1 to 2½ point advances.
United States Steel rosce to 104 and closed at 104⅞, a net gain of 2⅝ points. Bethlehem Steels were next in favor, the new stock rising 7 to 80½ on a very large turnover and the old issue advancing 6¾ to 80¾.
Shippings, tobaccos, oils, motors and sugars registered net advances of 2 to 5 points.
Motors and sugars registered net advances of 2 to 5 points. Total sales amounted to 780,000 shares.

GEORGE FAUL TELLS OF STAY IN VICKSBURG

Letter to Journal Contains Interesting Account of Visits to Various Historic Scenes—Veterans Met by Company of National Guard.

George Faul, commander of Matt Starr Post, kindly writes the Journal as follows:

"Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 16.

"Editor Journal:

"We left Jacksonville at 9:45 a. m. Sunday morning and at 1:30 p. m. reached St. Louis where we remained till 11:30 when we again set out for our destination. We reached Memphis at 9 a. m. Monday, remained there an hour and then set out again for our final stopping place which we reached at 9 in the evening. We traveled on a special train and were well treated. At Vicksburg we were met by a company of National Guard, 75 strong and taken to the camp grounds in auto trucks.

"At the camp we were assigned to quarters in a large tent with 1650 cots, supplied with new comforts, pillow, mattress and towel for each member. Each cot is numbered and each occupant has his bed during his stay here. There are several large tents similar to the one we are occupying. The dining tent will seat 2000 and we are served with the army ration which is good enough for anybody.

"The Confederates have their quarters by themselves and there are a good many of them and they are a jolly set, fraternal and sociable and thoroughly loyal now. A good many of them have sons in the service at present and they are as much interested in the success of the war in Europe as the men of the north and it is certainly very pleasant to be able to fraternize so freely with men whom once we fought so hard.

Visited Siege Ground

"We visited the siege ground where the many monuments are now erected and looked over the various places where the great conflicts of 1863 took place and where the tablets are placed, telling the story of the decisive victory of the war. We went over the ground which was once fought over so vigorously. We visited the Illinois state monument and look upon it as the finest one in all the park. One pleasant feature about it is the recording of the names of the Illinois men engaged in the siege here, and then its construction is rather the most imposing and prominent of any monument on the grounds.

We also visited the national cemetery and it is said to be one of the finest of the kind in the country. It is beautifully located on rising ground and the white stones there tell the story of the men who fought so bravely for the life of the nation.

"Everyone knows the peculiar habits of the Mississippi river, how it will change its course and do all sorts of strange things. Kaskaskia was once three miles from the stream and since that time it has been washed clear away. So on the other hand, Vicksburg is now not on the river bank as it was when we were here, but the river has cut a new channel and the city itself is on a canal dug to the Yazoo river. So it doesn't looks as it did in the '60s.

"Tomorrow the blue and the grey are to be taken all over the grounds in automobiles furnished by the government. The Jacksonville boys are all well and enjoying themselves heartily and expect to have a good time all the way thru."

Miss Helen Arnold of Roodhouse was a shopper in the city yesterday.

BANK CASHIER REGAINS OLD JOB

A Lesson to Drinking Men

After having been discharged and humiliating his family through drinking, the cashier of a western bank is now back in his old position. He no longer has a craving for liquor—he has gained in weight and health, he eats, sleeps and works like a normal man. He has regained the confidence of his friends and business associates, the love of his family and the respect of the community. He is able to hold his head upright among his fellowmen. He is a bigger asset to himself and to the nation.

He will tell you that this is all due to the Keeley Treatment—the original, reliable and scientific treatment for drink and drugs.

This is only one case of thousands of similar cases, varying only in details, which could be mentioned. To most of them the Keeley Treatment has meant just as much as to this man. To all of them it has brought clean, healthy and habit-free living. It has brought them more than money can buy. There are men today right in this State who are allowing drink to rob them of all that makes life worth while. They can be benefited just as much as have these thousands of others. They can be brought back to the clean moral line again.

Bring the Keeley Treatment to their attention. Show them the path to regained health and happiness. Point out to them the dangers of the path they follow and the simple way to quit forever the habit that is dragging them down. Tell them that the Keeley Treatment is a kindly, effective method, with no harsh practices, no sickness, no confinement. Explain that it simply means a short stay in beautiful Dwight, under the kindly care of competent physicians, with the best of food and comfortable lodging in an up-to-date fireproof building. The climate is healthful. Don't wait if you seek treatment for yourself or your friend. Write now for information, as every delay finds the habit with its grip strengthened. Information will be mailed in a plain, sealed envelope.

Special accommodations for women patients. The Keeley Institute, Dwight, Ill. Nearly 40 years of success and high standards.

REMEMBER HOME SUFFERERS

Superintendent of Charities A. L. Bowen has made an appeal to the liberal people of Illinois not to forget their associated charities and local organizations, such as orphanages, whose needs this winter will be even greater than heretofore.

"While the public mind is centered upon the financial needs of the country, bond issues, red cross funds, soldiers' library and the like", reads the appeal, "the local community must not forget its responsibility to care for its sick, destitute, poor and dependent children.

"This winter the demands of this character will be greater than ever, because of the high cost of foods, fuel and clothing. The enlistment of the support of the family or of an aged parent or a dependent sister will add a new element to local needs.

"We are now in receipt of many appeals from small institutions and organizations which are doing a necessary work, but are finding their income dwindling because of the greater interest of the public in war subscriptons.

The state charitable institutions are already taxed to their full capacity. Large increases in the number in state hospitals, schools for feeble minded and similiar institutons are looked for during the comng twelve months. The experience of other countries at war show us what to expect in this respect. Illinois has accepted full responsibility for all of her soldiers who become afflicted with mental disease, and these will be brought to Illinois institutions.

"Every effort should be made in each city and community to keep at normal stage its actfvities in behalf of its lotal charities. This will requirte sacrfice, but a sacrifice bust be made. Those who have been assisting in the past in support of orphanages and similar agencies should remember that their help is more vital now than it has ever been.

"It is the duty of every organization which receives support of private benevolence to practice the strictest economy, to cut out every unessential, to dispense with useless employes of whom I have no doubt there are some in every institution, to raise as much as possible from their land, to buy where and when the best terms can be had, and above all, to do that sort of charity which is the only true charity—to teach and instruct, to train and educate those who are dependent so that they may become at least partially self-supporting.—State Journal.

BERNHARDT TONIGHT

Madame Sarah Bernhardt, fresh from her triumphs at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York City and Chicago, where she electrified her admirers with as many as twelve performances a week, comes to the Grand tonight for a special night performance, with her own company of artistes from the Theatre Sarah Bernhardt, Paris. Bernhardt's leading man when she first came to this county in 1880.

At each performance the following artistes will appear during the intermissions: Jean Cooper, (Contralto), Albert Donnelly, (Shadowgraphy) Florence Hardeman (Violinist). Rome Fenton, (Tenor), Annie Louise David (Harpist), Royal Bernard (Piano) and Jean Duval and Company in Gems of Art.

Mme. Bernhardt will appear in scenes chosen from among her greatest triumphs: The death scene from Cleopatra and Portia The Merchant of Venice.

MATRIMONIAL

Liter-Louden.

Beryl Liter and Miss Mary Louden were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents near Virginia Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The cermony was said by the Rev. C. G. Cantrell, pastor of Concord Christian church, the beautiful ring service being used. The wedding march was played by Miss Lillian Bateman. The bridal party was preceded by Miss Grace Myers and Miss Georgia Louden, who carried ribbons forming an aisle to a canopy of autumn leaves which was arched with a large American flag, where the ceremony was said. Mildred Underbrink was the ring bearer. The bride's gown was of white silk net over white taffeta. She wore a white tulle veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms, sent from California by her aunt. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. A coincidence of this marriage was that three sisters of the groom have all been married on the same day of the month, Oct. 16. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Louden and is a young woman whose charm of manner has won for her many friends. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Cass county and is highly respected in the community in which he lives. After a brief wedding trip they will reside with the groom's father near Literberry.

EVANGELISTIC PARTY SPENT STRENUOUS DAY

Hanley-Fisher Party Ministering to Many Phases of Life in City—Dr. Hanley Disciple of Strenuous Life —Meetings of Day Climaxed With Inspiring Sermon Thursday Evening.

The Hanley and Fisher Revival Announcements

Friday Noon—Service at Car Shops. All invited.
Friday, 4 P. M.—Service at Grace church for women and girls. Dr. Hanley will speak on "Woman and Morals," or "The Cause and Cure of White Slavery."
Friday Evening, 7:30—Mother's Night. Sermon Theme, "The Woman Thou Gavest Me."
Saturday Evening, 7:30—The Children's Chorus will sing.
Sunday Afternoon 2:30 at Grace church for men and boys. Sermon by Dr. Hanley on "White Black Birds."

The Hanley-Fisher party are exponents of the strenuous life. They are hard at it all day long conducting meeting and ministering to every phase of life in our city.

Last evening after a day crowded full of great services, Dr. Hanley preached another mighty sermon with apparently undiminished energy. To chronicle all his fresh illustrations, vivid word pictures, sparkling humor and the thrilling climaxes in his four addresses yesterday would leave room for little else.

Suffice it to say, the evangelistic campaign is going on with increasing power. The addresses yesterday afternoon on "The Power of Motherhood" is bound to bear fruit in the building of happier, nobler homes.

And the sermon last night on "Son, Remember" struck a responsive chord in every one present. Four points were forcefully emphasized—1. Remember God. 2. Remember Christ. 3. Remember you must remember your words and deeds. 4. Remember sin kills your soul.

Miss Robertson spoke at Academy Hall to Illinois College students at supper yesterday.

She has arranged for delegations to come from the High School, the Illinois Woman's College and the Business College to occupy seat reservations at the 4 o'clock meeting for women and girls at Grace church today.

Dr. Hanley is making a great hit with the men of our city. They are looking forward to the special meeting Sunday afternoon.

At the same hour Miss Robertson will address a women's meeting in Centenary church on the subject, "Path of Service."

Tonight everyone is asked to wear a white flower and bring a fresh laundried handkerchief. It is Mothers' night.

THAT SKIM MILK—SAVE IT.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Save every drop of skim milk. It is a valuable food. Use it in your kitchen and on your table.

It is valuable as a beverage, in cookery, as cottage cheese,—too valuable to waste, whether it comes thru your own separator or the separator at the creamery,—too valuable to be thrown away, or fed to farm animals, if it can be used for human food.

At creameries where whole milk is handled, skim milk is often thrown down the drains. Creameries ought to make their skim milk into cottage cheese.

Farmers ought to make cottage cheese at home. Skim milk so used will supplement our meat supply, for cottage cheese is one of the best substitutes for meat. Use it in your cooking.

Make and eat cottage cheese and encourage others to use it.

Make puddings and soups and bread with skim milk.

The dairy division of the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. will tell you how to make cottage cheese in the home or creamery and in what dishes it may be used.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Pratt were among Chapin residents who were in the city yesterday.

The sessions were especially marked by the best of raternal feeling, the elections being practically unanimous and good will generally being shown on all hands.

Theater parties and auto rides were furnished the wives of the grand officers and much enjoyed.

Mrs. Reeve and Mrs. Snowden entertained at Mrs. Snowden's home Wednesday afternoon for the visiting ladies in honor of Mrs. John J. Brown, wife of the Supreme Chancellor of the World. It was a Red Cross tea and knitting was the order of the day. A dinner party was given by Dr. and Mrs. Snowden at the Jefferson hotel to Grand Chancellor Reeve and wife and Supreme Chancellor John J. Brown and wife. A theater party for all the ladies was given at the Orpheum theater Wednesday night.

WHEAT GRADES HIGH THIS YEAR

Rumors That New Government Standards Would Work Hardship Proven Without Foundation by Actual Facts.

A large part of this year's wheat crop has graded high at the markets—No. 3 or better—under the Federal wheat standards made effective this year. The United States Department of Agriculture calls attention to the exact figures because persistent false rumors have been circulated in the grain trade, and particularly among country shippers and producers, to the effect that, under the new Federal standards for wheat, very little of the marketed crop is being, or has been, placed in the higher grades. On the contrary, the requirements of the Federal standards for wheat are not such as to work hardship on the country shippers and producers, for under these standards high grades have been given to a heavy percentage of the wheat marketed.

The Department of Agriculture calls attention to these facts:

(1) Of the Hard Red Spring wheat which arrived in Minneapolis during the months of August and September, 1914, 1915 and 1916, 76.7 per cent graded No. 3 or better under Minnesota State standards for wheat in effect at that time.

Of the Hard Red Spring wheat which arrived at Minneapolis during August and the first 22 days of September this year, 81.2 per cent graded No. 3 or better under the Federal standards.

In comparing the above facts, it should be borne in mind that whereas "No. 3 or better" under Minnesota State standards included the first four grades (No. 1 Hard and Nos. 1, 2, 3, Northern) only the first three grades of the Federal standards have been considered.

(2) Of the Hard Red Winter wheat which arrived in Chicago during July and August this year, 79.3 per cent graded No. 3 or better under Federal standards; of the Soft Red Winter wheat which arrived at Chicago during the same period 72.5 per cent graded No. 3 or better under the Federal standards.

Of the Hard Red Winter wheat which arrived at Kansas City during July and August this year, 89.9 per cent graded No. 3 or better under the Federal standards; of the Soft Red Winter wheat which arrived at Kansas City during the same period 92.6 per cent graded No. 3 or better under the Federal standards.

Laurel, Md., Oct. 18.—Breaking the world's record for 1¼ miles, August Belmont's Hourless defeated Viau's Omar Khayyam today in a match race for a purse of $10,000. The Belmont horse made a mark of two minutes and two seconds. The former mark as 2:03 3-5. Hourless won by a good length altho Omar made the pace and kept it until the horses came to the home stretch, when Hourless forged ahead and kept the lead. Frankie Robinson piloted the winner. The purse of $10,000 will be used by Mr. Belmont to buy $10,000 worth of liberty bonds which he will present to the American Red Cross. Governor Harrington of Maryland presented a gold trophy to the representatives of Belmont. It was given by E. B. McLean of Washington. Hourless paid $3.60 for a $2 ticket.

A crowd estimated at 30,000 saw the race. It was the largest ever assembled at a Maryland race track. Hourless was heavily backed by the New York contingent present, while the small bettors seemed to be with Omar Khayyam.

Why The Domes in The Copper Lining of a Copper-Clad Range?

To make a dry air space next to the range body. The tips of these domes rest against the range body. They hold the sheet of copper away from the range body and leave a space for dry air like a thermos bottle. This not only keeps the body dry—but an air space is the one best heat holder.

The little domes save a shovel of coal at every meal—over a thousand shovels a year.
